*OPENING SENTENCES (Responsive)

God’s Spirit refuses to be limited

Come, Holy Spirit!

God’s activity is irresistible and relentless.

Come Holy Spirit

God keeps showing up with mercy and love.

Come, Holy Spirit

So, let us worship our God today.

KYRIE

(Please join us in the “Kyrie”, an ancient song that mirrors the words people used to cry out to Jesus for healing in the scriptures. In Greek they mean, “Lord, have mercy”. The church has sung these words for thousands of years as prayer and to prepare our hearts for confession.)

Kyrie Eleison (Lord have mercy)

Christe Eleison (Christ have mercy)

CONFESSION OF NEED (Responsive)

Holy Spirit,

In the turbulence and the loneliness of our living from day to day and night to night

Keep me in touch with my roots, not to defend them but to humbly remember where you brought me from.

Keep me in touch with my feelings,

Not to be ruled by them, but to be more aware of who I really am and what it costs.

Keep me in touch with my mind,

Not to have answers, but to know who I am not and what that means.

And keep me in touch with my dreams,

So I will grow words where I truly want to go and for whom.

Holy Spirit,

Deliver us from the arrogance of assuming we know enough to judge others.

Deliver us from the timidity of presuming we don't know enough to help others.

Deliver us from the illusion of claiming we have changed enough when we have only risked little.

That so liberated, we will make some of the days to come different.

Holy Spirit,

We ask not to be delivered from the tensions that wind us tight, but for a sense of direction to move once wound.

a sense of humor about our disappointments,

a sense of respect for the mysteries of being human.

and a sense of gladness for your Kingdom which comes like wind and flame.

New languages for those willing to open their mouths.

Holy Spirit, come.
